

Start your Hawaiian holiday Saturday, March 2 at 8:30 a.m. with a continental breakfast followed by an interactive art class taught by Fred Lorenzo, an acclaimed Maui artist. His unique style lets you create your own masterpiece, which is suitable for framing. Fred uses a variety of materials and techniques to allow individual creativity in your finished artwork. This session is scheduled for approximately 2 hours of interactive instruction, culminating with an artistic creation which will surprise and excite each creator. The event will end at 11:30 a.m.

RSVP by February 5 to brenaud@hvac.me.com

Please join us on Sunday, March 3 at 9:00 a.m. for a unique culinary experience. We'll begin the day with a tour of the Ritz Carlton herb garden, followed by continental breakfast and a presentation by the resident horticulturist. After breakfast we will continue our event with a journey through several interactive stations ranging from culinary to mixology in the Anuenue Room. You will have the opportunity to create an appetizer, dessert or salad. The mixology team will help you create a unique beverage. Celebrity Chef Bev Gannon will also provide a station displaying one of her famous culinary specialties. At the conclusion of the interactive sessions, guests will adjourn to the Pavilion to enjoy a marvelous "farm to table" lunch. The event will conclude by 1:00 p.m.

RSVP by February 5 to brenaud@hvac.me.com